Shoemaker, Gisriel Elected To Council And A.A. Offices

Tom Gisriel

"I will do all I can to further interest among the student body in all the sports at Loyola. I shall endeavor to arouse more active spirit in the Block L Club by having weekly meetings, monthly socials, and seasonal talks by great coaches or stars of various athletic teams, and thus make the Block L Club derive the pleasures it should entail as a body of athletes who energetically carry the colors of Loyola College onto the various competitive fields."

Dudley Shoemaker and Thomas Gisriel became the new heads of Loyola's student activities at general elections held on Monday, April 28.

Shoemaker was elected President of the Student Body by a majority of 124 votes over his nearest competitor, George Buchness. Gisriel, President-elect of the Athletic Association, barely edged James Norris by 24 votes.

Formal Induction May 23

The elections climaxed a colorful two-week campaign period. Electioneering was spirited and ingenious up to and including election day. The new school officers will replace John Sweeney and Leon Greenbaum, student heads for the past year, at the beginning of the Spring term. Formal induction ceremonies will be held at Loyola Night, May 23. (See story elsewhere on this page.)

Of 709 ballots cast for President of the Student Council, Shoemaker netted 349. George Buchness polled 225, and Edward Barrett, 126. Gisriel polled 284 of the 703 ballots cast for President of the Athletic Association. Although but one ballot was used for both offices, several students neglected to vote for the A. A. President. James Norris received 270 votes, and William Linz drew 149.

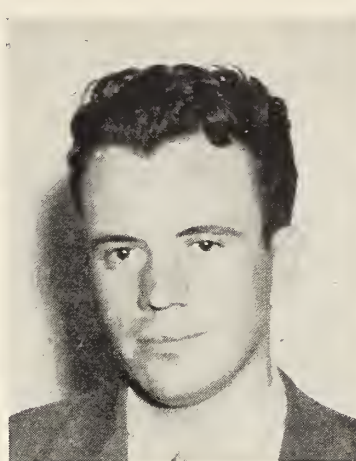

Both Shoemaker and Gisriel will graduate in May, 1948, and will hold office until that time. Both are graduates of Loyola High School. Shoemaker is a veteran of Army

Junior Prom Date Changed To June 7

Loyola's traditional big dance, the Junior Prom, will be held this year on Saturday, June 7, it was announced by Paul Feeley, president of the Junior Class. The dance was originally scheduled for May 17.

The Junior Class expects to sign an orchestra contract sometime this week. Details of the dance will be announced in the next issue of THE GREYHOUND.

Dudley Shoemaker

Election statement of Dudley Shoemaker, President-elect of the Student Body and of the Student Council:

"The Student Council is the voice of the students, the organization which directly represents them in student life, but it can do this only when it is assured of the active interest and cooperation of the students themselves. Every student can play a part in it. With your help, we can work together to give our college an active, organized Council and an active, organized Student Body. The facilities of the College are yours. Use them. Take part in student activities. You and Loyola will benefit."

Loyola Quarterly To Appear In June

Announcement was made recently by Mr. John G. Herzer, instructor of English, that the first issue of the revived Evergreen Quarterly will appear in the latter part of June. Mr. Herzer is the moderator of the literary magazine.

Dudley Shoemaker was recently appointed as Editor-in-Chief of the publication and has chosen a staff to assist him in the selection and arrangement of the manuscripts and in designing the new format. All those interested are urged to contribute articles, stories, or poems. To date a considerable amount of material has been accepted.

Sodality Plans Queens Ball For May 16

Acceptances of more than 150 invitations have already been made for the Queen's Ball, which is being held under the auspices of the Sophomore-Freshman Sodality on Friday, May 16. Chairman Frank Janowiak announced this week that bids for invitations will remain available at the booth in the cafeteria until the day of the dance.

Johnny Moran and his Orchestra have contracted to play at the Ball which is to last from nine until one in the Gymnasium. As a result of a vote taken among the Sodality members, it was decided that dress would be semi-formal. Free refreshments will be served in the Recreation Room during the intermission.

Committees Listed

Assisting Frank Janowiak is Thomas Gisriel, who heads the Ticket Committee, and Thomas Daniels who is in charge of the decorations. George Herman is the Chairman of the Publicity Committee and Rodgers Kines is handling the program for the Ball.

James Lacy and Donald Coulter have been named to receive all Patron and Aide fees. In connection with the work of the Publicity Committees, one thousand floaters advertising the Ball were distributed during the last two weeks.

To Select Court Of Honor

Photographs of the student's dates who have been listed as Aides have been submitted to the General Committee. From this group, four girls will be selected to comprise the Court of Honor. They will distribute the favors to the other young ladies attending the Ball.

Photographs of eight of the Queen's Aides appear on page three of this issue. Pictures are still being accepted by the Aide Committee. The patron and aide fees are fifty cents each.

Alumni Mass This Sunday

The annual Alumni Communion Mass and breakfast will take place this Sunday, May 4. Mass will be said in the Student Chapel at 9 a. m. and breakfast will be served immediately afterwards in the Oak Room of the cafeteria of Loyola College.

The chairman of the committee in charge of the preparations is Mr. J. Joseph Curran from the class of 1926. Mr. Curran is the current Vice-President of Loyola's Alumni Association.

The Rev. Edward A. Ryan, S. J., will be the guest speaker at the breakfast. Over two hundred alumni are expected to be present to take part in this annual affair.

All alumni members are invited to attend. The Association has been assured an appetizing breakfast, which is to be served by the Slater System, the management in charge of providing meals for the college cafeteria.

Those who have not yet made preparations to attend this affair should notify Mr. Curran or Dr. Doehler at the Alumni Office.

Plans Released For $300,000 Gym Addition, Include Cafeteria, Seats For Basketball Games

An addition to the present Gymnasium, costing approximately $300,000 will be built as soon as possible, the Rev. Robert P. Arthur, S. J., announced this week. The new construction will measure 100' x 100' and will extend West from the present Gym. At the present time the architect is working to complete the plans within a week and as soon as they are completed and a loan made, building will begin.

The new addition will be three floors. The ground floor will be a cafeteria that will seat 400 in the main dining room and about 85 in a snack bar. The main dining room, which will be open-only during the lunch periods, can easily be converted into a banquet hall seating 500, into three large meeting rooms, or into a dance floor. The smaller snack bar, tucked away into one corner, will be open from early morning till late in the evening, and will serve as a focal point for the students during the school day.

Construction To Begin In May

"I think construction will begin in May," Fr. Arthur said. "In fact work must begin immediately if we hope to take care of the 1200 students who will be enrolled in September. Our present cafeteria is very inadequate and I hope to have the new cafeteria completed before the end of the summer. The rest of the building can be completed during the coming year."

Plans for the second floor include 800 seats on the West side of the present basketball court, a large lobby and lounge room, offices, rest rooms and an athletic store. The 800 seats will go up into the third floor, where there will be a large gym room for wrestling, boxing and gymnastics, a handball court, a meeting room for the Block L Club and the Alumni, a small kitchen, locker and dressing rooms for the alumni, dressing rooms for coaches and officials, and storage rooms.

Other Improvements

Besides the new addition to the Gym, Father Arthur already has given out several contracts for improving the present facilities, including 700 seats on the east end of the basketball court, glass backboards, an electric score board, and a Paige fence around the athletic field.

The present cafeteria will be used for classrooms. Construction on the temporary buildings being erected at the north of the campus, will be completed in the Spring.

Letters To The Greyhound

Where To Go On A Date?

To the Editor of THE GREYHOUND
Dear Sir:

Chances are that if you had a date last Saturday evening, you went to the movies or to a dance sponsored by some organization with which you are vaguely familiar. If you had a date on the previous Saturday evening, chances are that again you went to the movies, or if you were lucky enough, you might have found a dance to your liking.

In fact, frequent movies and occasional dances are about the only types of entertainment which this city has to offer on a decent scale. In too many instances, you cannot even attend a dance which you feel will do you no harm in the way of a respectable reputation.

Still the newspapers, anxious to show their sense of public welfare, and orators, trying to enhance their political aspirations, are devoting column after column in the papers and hour after hour of radio time talking about juvenile delinquency. They talk, but they do not act. They say that this should be done, but they do not say that this will be done. In short, they are just wasting everyone's time.

When are we going to be given more and better equipped places for "Teen-age" recreation? Certainly, there is a pressing need for respectable centers where the youth of this city can gather and be a little boisterous, yet maintain their proper reserve, enjoy an opportunity for good, clean fun and recreation of all types customary in our Society.

No one has to be reminded that it is the young people who will be tomorrow's leaders. What type of leaders can we expect if in their youth, they had little opportunity for decent association with their comrades? What kind of respect do you think young people will have for the law and its representatives when the law continues to break up street corner gatherings when these gatherings are the only way in which the young people can congregate and enjoy each other's company, or when the young frequent places of recreation where they may learn to pick up anything but respect for law, order and morality?

There is but one conclusion. The administration of Baltimore City must appropriate funds for the establishment and maintenance of decent recreation centers which will provide for all, not just a few. In dollars and cents this action will save them money in the long run. It is a much more pleasant and profitable task to spend money for recreation for youth than to spend money for their prosecution and incarceration. In the formation of tomorrow's Baltimore, it will give them better citizens. Wake up Baltimore. "It is later than you think!"

David Nottingham

To the Editor of THE GREYHOUND:

On behalf of the Sponsoring Committee of the panel discussion on "The Ethical Aspects of the Planned Parenthood Movement," I wish to express appreciation for the editorial carried by THE GREYHOUND entitled "Front Line Catholic Action."

It is my hope that we shall be able to continue the effort. Copies of the evenings proceedings are being printed and will be circulated as widely as possible, and, with the permission of His Excellency, the Most Reverend Archbishop, perhaps we shall attempt like forums in the future.

G.I. Insurance

Loyola veterans of World War II have been advised by the Veterans Administration that they may pick up dropped term GI Insurance without a medical examination until August 1, 1947.

NSLI term policies, which have been dropped at any time, may be picked up until August by payment of two monthly premiums and a comparative health statement.

Term insurance, VA explained, is the type issued to veterans while in service and which has not been converted to one of the several types of permanent NSLI. Veterans may reinstate all or any part of their lapsed term insurance in multiples of $500.

Loyola Veterans were advised that complete information and assistance concerning their GI Insurance may be obtained at the VA office in the basement of the Science Building.

ALUMNI DOINGS

By Edward A. Doehler, '30

Annual Communion Mass And Breakfast

Sunday, May 4, is the day set for the annual gathering of Loyola Alumni at Evergreen for corporate communion in the College Chapel. Advance reservations of close to two hundred indicate that this will be a record affair. The Chairman, J. Joseph Curran, ex '26, has secured the speaker for the breakfast meeting at which the President of the Association, Jerome J. Egan, '32, will preside.

Alumni Notes

Andrew J. Conlon, '42, was married on Saturday, April 19th at Ridgewood, New Jersey, to Miss Edythe Victorine Van Rees daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham C. Van Rees of that city. Andy is the son of Charles Conlon, '06, a former President of the Alumni Association. Two of his brothers are also Loyola men—Charles C., Jr., '38, and Frank, ex '46.

Dr. Raymond M. Cunningham, Loyola '35 and University of Maryland, M.D. 1939, is scheduled to return to Baltimore next week to begin the practice of surgery here. After graduating from University of Maryland Medical School, Dr. Cunningham spent four years in surgery at the University Hospital, followed by a year as surgical fellow at the Lahey Clinic in Boston and a sixth year of training as surgical resident at Baltimore City Hospital. For the past twenty-one months Dr. Cunningham has been the surgeon at St. Luke's Hospital, Bluefield, West Virginia. Returning to Baltimore, Dr. Cunningham will begin the private practice of surgery with offices at 1011 N. Charles Street and will also be connected with the University of Maryland in a teaching capacity. He is listed as a Diplomate of the American Board of Surgeons.

Charles E. Jackson, Jr., '34, is back at Evergreen, this time as a construction man. The firm of Charles E. Jackson and Son is at present engaged in the erection of the concrete block foundation walls for the new temporary classroom buildings to house the record enrollment of Loyola students. Charlie is a former recording secretary of the Alumni Association.

Arnold F. Deichelman, ex '45, writes from Jacksonville, Florida, to tell of his present work with the United States Navy. Arnold is a Midshipman at the present time and has finished his training at Pensacola, Florida, receiving his wings and diploma on March 28. He qualified as a carrier pilot and will fly a Corsair from the U. S. S. Saipau. Arnold is delighted with his work and looks forward to his new experience. His interest in Loyola continues and he hopes to renew contacts with his classmates as he did when he met them at a Loyola dance last September.

William Lamble Cooper, ex '45, has recently announced his engagement to Miss Anne Maria Culhane of New York. Miss Culhane is a graduate of the College of Mt. St. Vincent-on-the-Hudson. The wedding will take place in New York City at Our Lady of the Angels Church, June 28th. Prior to his wedding Mr. Cooper will be graduated from the United States Military Academy at West Point. After graduation on June 3, he will be commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in the regular U. S. Army. Assigned to the Infantry, Lieutenant Cooper will go to Fort Riley, Kansas, for further training after his graduation leave. While at Loyola College, Bill was one of the managers of basketball. He received his appointment to West Point while a Sophomore at Loyola, and entered the Military Academy on July 1, 1943.

Dr. Robert B. McFadden, '40, informs us that he is now on active duty with the Navy at the United States Naval Hospital, San Diego 34, California. Dr. McFadden now has the rank of Lt. (j.g.), (M.C.) U. S. N. R., and expects to remain on active duty for another year.

John J. Pugh, '43, was married recently to the former Miss Carolyn D. Fitzpatrick. The bride was given in marriage by her godfather, George J. Miller, Jr., also of the class of '43. Ushers at the wedding were two classmates of the groom, Charles F. Hemelt, Jr., and Joseph B. Smith. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George Pugh, brother of the groom.

Senior Sodality Action Shown In Committees

Below are a few excerpts from a recent meeting of Loyola's Senior Sodality. As is true of the minutes of any comparative organization, they merely summarize the work of the Sodality during a brief space of time. The greater part of the work of the Sodality is done by the members of the various committees on their own time.

"I don't know, yet."
"Good! Throw it in Baltimore!"
That's no joke, son. During the last season, the Monumental City has definitely been assigned a place in the nation's legitimate theatre circuits. It has become a testing ground—a springboard for bigger and better places. In the last few months of our season in Baltimore, Maryland theatre-goers had to contend with every new brain child with which ambitious playwrights could plague them.

Some Good Plays

Summing up the brief spurts of the relatively "good" moments, of the past season, Baltimore saw only six Broadway shows — three of which were road company productions ("State of the Union," "The Red Mill," "Up in Central Park"); two star-studded shows ("The Magnificent Yankee," "Dream Girl"); and one so-called "hit" which Boston generously handed over to us, stench and all ("The Iceman Cometh"—unfortunately).

Perhaps, Baltimore seems logical for testing new productions, because it has only one legitimate theatre, which is not too good in itself, and one "lukewarm" theatre called "The Maryland" which operates whenever it can dig up something that Ford's won't take. Naturally, since a New York producer can secure a full house of reasonably experienced theatre-goers to sit through his little pet; Baltimore is logically the place to open.

One Successful

Of course, in some rare cases, new shows which opened in Baltimore proved successful. "Call Me Mister" was a rare exception to the dry rot we usually receive. Against this musical revue we have "Man Bites Dog," "Temper The Wind," "Little A," "The Girl From Nantucket," and "Barnaby And Mr. O'Malley"—which might have gone places, if the producers only had a few billion dollars and a lot of patience.

Baltimore Theatre Lovers arise! In the name of good theatre let us take the imaginary roof over the stadium, couple it with the dreams of play-goers, and build a theatre for Baltimore that will scream at Equity and New York big-wigs, "See What We've Got? Fill it with something worth while!"

Mightier Than The Atom

"... since wars begin in the minds of men, it is in the minds of men that the defences of peace must be constructed... the wide diffusion of culture, and the education of humanity for justice and liberty and peace are indispensable to the dignity of man and constitute a sacred duty which all the nations must fulfill in a spirit of mutual assistance and concern..."—From the preamble of the UNESCO Constitution.

While the men at Lake Success attempt to secure world peace by wrangling, strong-arm tactics and by compromises, a smaller, much less publicized group is fighting for peace by the apparently novel method of removing the causes of wars.

They call themselves UNESCO, for United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization. Perhaps the tag isn't too familiar. The men at Lake Success have usurped too much of the front page space to leave much for organizations who fight for peace without recourse to the sword.

The first meeting of UNESCO in this country was held in early March of this year with 1000 delegates, representing 500 leading educational, professional, labor, and religious groups in the nation. At this first assembly, the educators outlined a program by which mutual understanding between nations shall be fostered. If misunderstanding and prejudices are the seeds which germinate into wars, then the true way to stop war is to remove these misunderstandings. Here is a weapon mightier than the Atom Bomb. The accidental proximate causes of war may be economic or boundary disputes. But the substantial cause lies much deeper; merely removing accidents can never result in world peace.

High-minded talk is cheap; how exactly does UNESCO plan to remove these formidable barriers? A program has been outlined, but not yet put into effect, which will seek to redesign school textbooks. Texts found hostile to mutual understanding between nations will be reported to the Organization.

The policy of American colleges and universities exchanging students with foreign institutions has been going on in a small way for many years. UNESCO believes that increasing the number of college-level students studying in other nations, and of other nation's students studying in the U. S. is a potent weapon for insuring understanding among nations.

From these examples, representing programs to be adopted, it is readily apparent that UNESCO is a baby organization. It has far from defined its specific jobs even to itself, much less put them into wide-scale operation.

But if we are convinced that UNESCO has the answer, and we can be reasonably sure that without some such organization the United Nations will surely fail, then this organization needs our help. What UNESCO needs most now is wide publicity: every individual concerned with world peace should know what this organization stands for and what it can and should accomplish.

Books

by Cyril Keller

The most popular books in the nation are being added to the shelves in the Loyola Library. Here are a few examples.

A Treasury of Laughter—

Louis Untermeyer

In the past few years the book market has been flooded by books that were guaranteed to make the reader burst the seams of his Arrow Shirt with laughter. But, sad to say, most of these books fell far short of this objective. Here at last is one that will certainly do what those other volumes claimed to do. It contains essays, poems, Limericks and short stories which have already convulsed the nation and are therefore proven. With names like Thurber, Parker and Benchley writing for a book it can't help but be hilarious.

A Study of History—

Arnold J. Toynbee

The six volumes written by Professor Toynbee during the past century have been condensed to form this new volume which is considered by most historians to be the finest book written about history during our times. Toynbee is now in the United States on a lecture tour and a short while ago lectured at Johns Hopkins. His lectures have been greeted by overflowing crowds. However, don't think that this is a book that you can read in one of two evenings. It is not a light book, but it is a book that will mean much to your education.

Dr. Toynbee's fame in the United States was greatly increased by a feature article in an edition of Time Magazine last month. He was interviewed by a GREYHOUND reporter when he lectured at Johns Hopkins University. The interview was printed in THE GREYHOUND of April 18.

Condolences

The faculty and student body wish to express their deep regret at the passing of Roger F. O'Leary, '16. News came also last week of the deaths of Mr. Nelson Dugan, uncle of Mark Dugan, and of Dr. John J. Krager, '18, father of John Krager, of the Sophomore Class. Our sympathy is extended to both of these families.

NOTES FROM THE SODALITY SOCIAL: Ignoring the nine boarders he transported down from NDM, Ed Hart spent the evening running up forty-seven games on the pin-ball machine. Congratulations, Ed. How many can you get with the machine on the floor? ... Not everybody was so lucky. Dave Nottingham had to cut in on seven wolves to dance with his own date. They thought she was an NDM boarder (Attention The Columns) ... General campaign manager Joe Parlett says his next fund drive will be to buy Charlie Shoemaker a car. "My date," says Charlie, "is out of this world, but so is Halethorpe!" ... Edelen Gough spent the evening getting the latest dope on the Brooklyn Dodgers from the Brooklyn contingent to NDM ... Johnny Grimm and Joe Parlett are trying to quiet rumors after transporting the NDM guests to the dance.

THE GREAT POLITICIANS: Jimmy O'Neill has campaigned as "the boy with the sideburns." Didn't he know there were no women voters on the campus? ... Dudley Shoemaker must be tired of carrying that platform around ... Any day now expect to see "Iron Man" Buchness coming to class in a suit of armor. Some of these candidates would go to any lengths for publicity: Ned (My Record Speaks) Barrett tried to get the entire Sodality Union to pray for him. Linz and Rebbert had trouble with the "little people" that kept taking down their signs. Jim Norris says this was the hardest campaign he ever ran. Those little cards cost him $6.00. Tom Gisriel refused all "party" connections. He wanted to be absolutely independent. And elected too?

HERE AND THERE: Joe (Beauty) Smith took an extra-long Easter Holiday. Or was it a short honeymoon? We'd like to know more, Joe ... Joe Weigman tasted freedom for a few days when Marie went to Toledo. Lucky she didn't stay more than a few days ... One pearl-handled foghorn goes to "Who-Who" Bijur for his perfect question in accounting class ... John (Have you heard the latest about Hopkins U.) Hook was coming back from the Summit after the Catholic High Prom when the car stalled. "Pull out the clutch, dope," offered a passenger. John did—all the way. John and Virginia arrived home in a taxi ... latest definition of "college bred" comes from an Economics teacher: "A three-year loaf on the Government's dough."

* * * *

HAVE YOU HEARD: Jim Lightner strongly disclaimed that there is any such thing as an ideal girl in a recent class discussion. We'd like to ask the girls in Irvington about that.

* * * *

THE WATCHDOG (and not even Audrey can guess who we are) is offering a sizable reward to the individual who discovers the writers of several anonymous postcards we have received recently. One, signed "The Girls," asks for more information on Andy O'Donnell and whether or not he is married. Another is written by a fan of MR. Joe Thaler. Already the Watchdog Secret Police are checking the typewriting and believe they have discovered the make of the guilty machine. We expect a full confession any day now.

* * * *

LIFETIME ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Tom Comber is still talking about defeating Navy last Sunday. (On the Chessboard, that is.) Al Sehlstedt was thinking of holding a party to celebrate the fact that all copy for "The Evergreen" has gone to the printers. Jerry Crawford is still trying to get an admitted victory in argument in Ethics Class. Daydreamer!

MOVIES:

Century—The Yearling starring Gregory Peck and Jane Wyman and introducing the sensational new child star, Claude Jarman ... in lovely technicolor.

Hippodrome—Framed with Glenn Ford and Janis Carter ... not a particularly enthralling picture, but magnificently salvaged from "B" lists by the performance of Ford.

New—The Late George Apley starring Ronald Colman and introducing Peggy Cummins ... Miss Cummins was a beautiful, Irish-to-the-teeth young lady who was obviously mis-cast, and Colman in a morning suit with a white homburg looks less like a Bostonian and more like a foreign diplomat.

Mayfair—The Fabulous Dorseys starring Tommy Dorsey and Jimmy

Dorsey, Janet Blair and Paul White-man in a movie that is magnificently musical and quite entertaining.

Keiths—Easy Come, Easy Go starring Barry Fitzgerald, Diana Lynn and Sonny Tufts, who still hasn't been given a decent role ... Fitzgerald is superb in a role that is definitely Fitzgeraldish ... Diana Lynn is a lovely and convincing ornament.

Stanley—Stallion Road with Ronald Reagan, Alexis Smith, and Zachary Scott ... bang-bang in a full-dress suit.

STAGE:

May 5—The Vagabond Players present Our Town at the Vagabond Theatre ... promises to be excellent.

Running With The Hounds

by M. F. Mackey

That double-header loss to Washington College at Chestertown last Saturday was a tough trip for the Loyola baseball team. The Sho'men collected 21 hits in the two games while the Greyhound batters got 10 safeties. And therein lies the explanation. Loyola's batting order has plenty of power when the men hit consistently. Spurrier, Carmody, Lind, McGarry, Whalen, Wintz and Boone have all had big days with the bat and pitchers Roche, Cole and Hartman are no slouches with that shillelagh, either. The Western Maryland game is a good example of the kind of hard hitting the Greyhounds are capable of. While big Sid Roche effectively scattered seven Terror hits, his mates teed off on the opposing hurlers for 13, good for 12 runs. Besides doing a good job on the mound, "Loyola's Doc Blanchard" led the hit parade with three for four, driving in three runs. Sid also proved to be a speedy, alert base runner, coming home twice on a wild pitch and a passed ball.

Don't count those Greyhounds out of the Conference race; potentially, they've got the strongest batting order in the league and pitchers Roche, Cole, Hartman, Farace, Carroll and Bevins have all turned in good performances. We expect to see Loyola really get rough with conference opposition from here on in.

Big wheels in the spring sports picture, of course, are the gentlemen who are displaying some of the best tennis team play Evergreen has ever seen. Definitely outclassing all their opposition thus far, the team looks a cinch to go through an undefeated season. In fact, Coach Vince Colimore has been trying to line up some classier competition for his boys. The tennis schedule for next spring should be an eye-opener. There would be no point in singling out players for praise. Especially on a team where there is such a spread of talent. Naturally, the team has dropped some singles matches and a very few doubles, but no team has yet come anywhere close to defeating them. All of them, Bill and Joe Thaler, Frank Scrivener, Jim Lacy, Jerry Laroque, Gene Nolan, and Rosser have contributed to a series of Loyola victories that has been a real pleasure and satisfaction to observe.

We said something last issue about the golfers playing the most enjoyable of the spring sports. That was before a couple of irate linksmen, burned by wind and sun in some matches and frozen by steady cold rain in another, invited us to enjoy some of the same, sometime. At this writing, Loyola's golfers were leading the Mason-Dixon Conference race. With at least four players capable of turning in scores under 80, the team should remain the one to beat in the Conference this year.

In the lacross picture, the story has been opposition with too much talent and experience. Loyola has put up some pretty terrific battles in the games thus far. There has been a lot of wood flying in the three games, but the stickmen from Evergreen couldn't win on sheer determination. The team has yet to meet Washington and Lee, Duke, Hopkins, Virginia and Lehigh. They should break into the win column in any but the Duke and Hopkins games.

Now that they have a good coach in Bill McElroy, the trackmen still lack the most important element—track talent. In an article on this page, the coach describes the situation very clearly. There are quite a few men in the school who are able to perform on the track and especially in the field events, who have not gone out for the team. When an opponent takes the high jump event by hurdling a mere 5 feet, three inches, high class competition in Mason-Dixon track is impossible. For the men at Evergreen, there has been no lack of steady practice. Coach McElroy has had the cindermen out there on the track daily. George Brown has been Loyola's only consistent winner in Mason-Dixon meets. His distance running has sometimes taken Loyola's only first place in some meets.

Prophetic note—The American University track team, on their way to Baltimore to trounce Loyola, 104 to 26, were handed five tickets for speeding!

Weekend Card Includes Games In Four Sports

Tomorrow will be a big day for Loyola's varsity athletes, with action slated in four of the five spring sports. Only the golf team will be off the field, since the full program calls for play in baseball, lacrosse, tennis and track. The Hounds will play host in two matches, and travel for the other pair.

The baseball team and the tennis contingent will journey to Ashland, Va., to match base hits and racketeering with Randolph-Macon College. The track and lacrosse outfits will entertain at home, with the thinclads matching talent with Catholic University and Washington College in a triangular meet, and the Indian followers facing a highly regarded Washington and Lee ten.

Play Conference Games

The nomads appear capable of seizing a pair of victories against R. M.'s Yellow Jackets. Lefty Reitz has molded together a hustling ball team, and the performance of Vince Colimore's tennis group has been most welcome.

Despite the hustle and determination of the trackmen and lacrosse squad, all around collegiate inexperience will probably be a telling tale tomorrow at home. Washington and Lee will visit Evergreen in a most confident mood, and Bish Baker will have his charges primed for an all-out fight to turn the tables.

Hound Golfers Lose 7-2 Match To Georgetown

Returning to their home links after playing their last three matches away, the Greyhound golf team played host to Georgetown University at Mount Pleasant last Tuesday. The Hoyas downed Father Herlihy's charges by a 7-2 score.

Loyola's points were made by Ward Burgess, who displayed some of the best golf of the day to defeat McCarthy 3 and 2, and Len Saltysiak, who halved his match with Larrow of the Hoyas.

Windy Course

The other Greyhound linksmen, playing on the windiest course they have encountered yet this year, did not fair as well. Haslbeck, Gisriel, Davis and Catania each lost matches to a rearranged Hoya line-up.

The Loyola linksmen were performing without the services of two of their starting players. Bernie Saltysiak, veteran player who plays a consistent game for the Hounds, and Jerry Crawford, who is returning to the Green and Gray line-up after an absence of six years, were both on a retreat with the senior class.

Course Is Cooperative

So far the Mount Pleasant course, which Loyola lists as its home course, has shown extreme cooperation to the Greyhound team. They post results of scores and announce the players over a public address system as they approach the tee.

Larrow, Georgetown, and Saltysiak, Loyola, halved.
King, Georgetown, defeated Haslbeck, 4 and 3.
Best ball won by Georgetown, 3 and 1.
Ostrosky, Georgetown, defeated Gisriel, 3 and 2.
Markey, Georgetown, defeated Davis, 6 and 5.
Best ball won by Georgetown, 5 and 4.
Burgess, Loyola, defeated McCarthy, 3 and 2.
Rita, Georgetown, defeated Catania, 6 and 5.
Best ball halved.

With such competent and enthusiastic direction, and with a few more men coming out to fill in the needed events, the Loyola track team should go far. Mr. McElroy thinks they will.

Ballots will be distributed on May 15 for voting of the outstanding athlete at Loyola College in the past year. Winner of the contest will be awarded the Jack Dempsey Trophy, donated by the Adam Hat Sports Welfare Committee. The election includes men participating in any of the spring sports.

This is the first election of its kind in the history of the school. The Adam Hat Sports Welfare group is sponsoring elections of outstanding athletes in colleges all over the country, donating trophies to each school.

Bill McElroy, Scholastic Mile Champ, Is New Track Coach

by Larry Atkinson

Loyola's cinder team will have a full time coach for the remainder of the season, it was announced recently by the Athletic Office. Mr. William McElroy, Jr., a former track ace himself, has taken over the tutelage of the Green and Gray thinclads and is presently engaged in rounding out his team for future meets.

William McElroy, Jr.

Already his expert guidance has shown results, foremost of which is George Brown's feat of lowering the local two mile record to 10:30.9½. This mark is forty-five seconds better than George's fastest time last season.

Is St. Joe Grad

Mr. McElroy is an alumnus of Mt. Saint Joseph's High School, graduating from the Irvington school in 1935. During his stay there he established himself as an outstanding athlete, winning a total of twelve varsity letters. In his senior year he won the University of Maryland interscholastic mile championship.

In addition to his track work the new mentor was also a standout performer for the Gaels' soccer team, and a member of their cross country aggregation. Between track and cross country he has collected ample experience to fit him for his new position.

Has Green Squad

On his arrival at Evergreen early last month, Mr. McElroy was met by a track squad composed mostly of novices. Several of the men had had experience in high school competition before coming to Loyola. With daily workouts and calisthenics he is whipping this material into a seasoned team.

"We have a promising team," Mr. McElroy commented recently, and the boys are getting better day by day. Judging from the improvement shown in the first few meets, we should have a strong team by the end of the season."

Men Needed

Biggest need now, in his opinion, is a larger number of men participating in the field events—javelin, discuss throw and shotput. Commenting on this deficiency the coach noted: "If we did not lack men to enter in the field events and distance runs, we could increase our own scores appreciably and lower our opponents'."

Nine Conquers W. Md. 12-6; Loses Twinbill To Sho'men

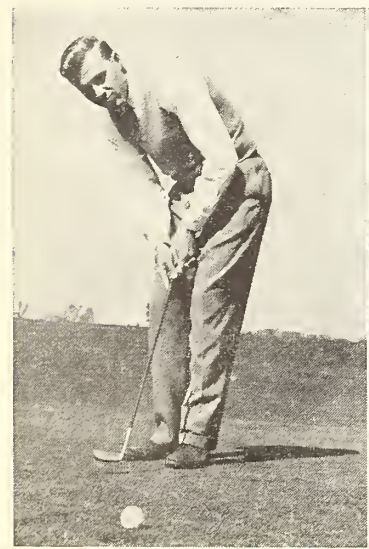

Displaying a greater superiority in hitting, the Greyhound nine came through to polish off Western Maryland College 12 to 6 last Friday at Evergreen in nothing but football climate.

Sid Roche went the full way for Loyola, allowing only seven hits during the nine inning contest. Likewise, he knocked out three hits in four trips to the plate, batted in three runs and scored twice himself.

The Hounds ended the second inning with three runs to their credit, after the losers had accounted for two in the top of the first. The third saw the big guns from Evergreen add six more runs and again in the fifth Loyola crossed the plate for three more. Western Maryland knocked out four tallies in the sixth and that was all for the afternoon.

Loyola's golf team, undefeated in conference competition to date, added another victory last Saturday when they downed Washington College at Chestertown. The 5½-3½ victory was the fourth straight Mason-Dixon win for the Hound linksmen.

Ward Burgess turned in the best score of the day, carding a two over par 37 for the first nine holes. He won his match by defeating his opponent 6-5 on the thirteenth and did not complete the full eighteen holes.

Washington College handed the Greyhound baseball team their first Mason-Dixon Conference losses last Saturday at Chestertown when they downed the Hounds in a twinbill, 12-4 and 6-1. The Shoremen collected fifteen safeties off three Loyola twirlers in the first contest and tallied in every inning but one.

The second game developed into a pitchers' duel between Dick Farace and Coakely of the home team. The Greyhounds garnered three scattered hits from Coakely, two of them by Ben Spurrier, while the Shoremen parlayed six bingles into an equal number of runs in two big innings.

Hounds Drop 8-3 Contest To Georgetown On Hoyas' Field

Georgetown University's diamond team took their seventh straight win of the season by downing Loyola, 8-3, on April 16th. Played on the Georgetown field under poor weather conditions, the game was one-sided all the way. The Hoyas gathered five markers in the first two frames and protected their lead the rest of the way.

Sid Roche took the hill for the Hounds, but allowed Georgetown four hits and three walks before being relieved by Dick Farace in the second. Farace finished the contest, giving up eight hits and seven walks, and fanning two men.

Jack Whalen, Hound first sacker, led the losers' offensive with a double and a single, for two of the seven bingles collected from Hoya pitcher Bob Gorra. Whalen also committed three of the five errors credited to the Loyola nine.

Spotty defensive work and lack of timely hitting kept the Hounds from threatening Georgetown's lead until the ninth, when a mild rally netted two runs. Bill Corley led the Georgetown offensive with four singles and a walk in five trips to the plate.

Gallaudet Defeated

The Greyhound baseball team had little difficulty in downing Gallaudet 16-3, on April 19th on the losers' diamond. The Hounds collected nine hits from two Gallaudet pitchers, but were aided by eleven walks and an equal number of errors.

Gallaudet never threatened, as Loyola collected five runs in the initial stanza and added two more tallies in the second inning. Ed McGarry led the scoring parade with two safeties.

7-2 Win Over Terrors Keeps Record Intact

Four in a row, and the end isn't in sight! This brief statement aptly summed up the early season calibre of Loyola's tennis team as the Greyhounds downed Western Maryland on April 23, 6-3, here at Evergreen.

Five singles men, Frank Scrivener, Jerry Laroque, Jim Lacy, Gene Nolan, and Joe Thaler, and two doubles combinations, Bill Thaler-Lacy and Laroque-Scrivener, waded through the opposition in straight sets to chalk up the Green and Gray's 7 point total.

On the debit side, Bill Thaler went into a prolonged three set battle with his erstwhile neighborhood foe, Ken Volk, before bowing out to the Green Terror's ace netman, 5-7, 6-4, 6-2. The Dick Moore-Bob Carter combine registered the only other victory of the visitors, over Jack Roesser and Joe Thaler.

Coach Vince Colimore has high hopes for his 1947 racket wielders, and so far the work of his boys has kept those hopes buoyant. Two of his singles players and one doubles duo have emerged all-victorious in these first four outings.

Lacy, who apparently is going to parallel on the tennis courts his outstanding basketball work, along with Gene Nolan has yet to be conquered. The former hasn't even dropped a set, and Nolan is right on his heels with only one set taken by his opponents.

Bill Thaler and Lacy have maintained an unbeaten pace in doubles play, and it is in this category that Coach Colimore is indeed fortunate. The above pair, and the Laroque-Scrivener combination each possess a right handed player and a southpaw. This always leaves the way open for a strong forehand return of enemy drives along the outside lanes of the court.

SINGLES

K. Volk, Western Maryland, defeated W. Thaler, 5-7, 6-4, 6-2.

F. Scrivener, Loyola, defeated H. Yingling, 6-0, 6-3.

Tennis Team Blanks Towson State, 9-0

Towson State Teachers' College proved no match for Loyola's tennis team, as the netmen registered an easy 9-0 whitewash on the Teachers at the Evergreen court.

Bill Thaler, Frank Scrivener, Jim Lacy, and Jerry Laroque all won 6-0 matches from their opponents, and the combinations of Bill Thaler and Jim Lacy, and Joe Thaler and Gene Nolan duplicated the feat in the doubles.

The summary:

SINGLES

W. Thaler, Loyola, defeated J. Buckingham, Towson State, 6-0, 6-0.

F. Scrivener defeated Cornthwaite, 6-0, 6-0.

J. Laroque defeated K. Buckingham, 6-0, 6-0.

J. Thaler and Nolan defeated Ackley and Elliot, 6-0, 6-0.

This match was originally scheduled to be played in the latter part of May, but was moved up to April 18th because of schedule difficulties. At the present time no return match is anticipated.

Lacrosse Team Defeated In Two Engagements

In extraordinarily cool weather for lacrosse, Loyola's stickmen traveled to College Park and lost a well-played 10-2 contest to Maryland on April 23. It was the Hounds' second loss of the season.

Regarded by the Old Liners as a practice session for some of its more publicized contests, the game produced some interesting action, as the Loyola ten refused to give in, although obviously weaker in manpower and collegiate experience.

Ken Wittlesberger scored first for Loyola one minute after the initial face-off, but Maryland came back with two markers while Loyola men were out on penalties. They added two more tallies in the second frame for a halftime count of 4-1. In spite of the score, the Greyhounds outplayed the Old Liner ten in the first half.

Loyola's second score came late in the third period when Bobbie Rodgers broke through the Terps' defense on a dodge play and dented the net. Meanwhile the host team was busy adding six more points for a final 10-2 score.

The Maryland score was divided among five men. Herbert tallied three points for high-scoring honors, while Lundval, Medairy and Freeman each made two and Barnhard scored one.

Swarthmore Wins, 14-2

Loyola suffered its third consecutive intercollegiate lacrosse defeat last Saturday afternoon at Evergreen, as a well drilled Swarthmore ten earned an easy 14-2 decision.

Unable to cope with its faster opponents, Bish Baker's Indian enthusiasts fell behind early and, despite a rejuvenated brand of game in the second half, were never able to come close to surpassing the smooth working visitors.

Lead, 6-0

It was the third straight time that Loyola had scored two goals, but the winners turned in the highest number of points that any foe had accumulated.

Sporting a fast style of play, the invaders attacked Loyola's goal early and frequently, and in spite of a perseverant attempt by goalie Skip Barry, the Hounds trailed by a 6-0 margin after the first period.

Hounds Show Improvement

Ed Hughes netted the Greyhounds' first goal in the second period, but the Swarthmore squad etched four more goals in this session and left the field at intermission with a safe 10-1 lead.

Although never in a dangerous position to overtake the leaders, Baker's stick wielders flashed a much improved game in the latter half, and held the visitors to four tallies while racking up one themselves. Henry Walker was responsible for this marker, scoring early in the third period. Jim Bowditch led the winners' offensive with four goals.

Loyola Teams Take Three of Five Contests

Loyola's baseball, tennis and golf teams came through with victories, but the lacrosse squad and track team were defeated as the Greyhounds played a full collegiate schedule on April 19. All five engagements were played away from home.

The Hound tennis squad continued its unmarred season by thumping American University's team by a 5-3 count. The Eagles were beaten in the singles matches by a 4-2 margin, but were able to tie the Green and Gray in the doubles department. A win, a defeat, and a tie brought about by darkness effected the doubles deadlock.

The summary:

SINGLES

Bill Thaler, Loyola, defeated Rubin, 6-3, 6-1.

Miller, A. U., defeated Scrivener, 6-4, 1-6, 8-6.

Laroque, Loyola, defeated Schweitzer, 6-2, 7-5.

Lacy, Loyola, defeated Doolittle, 6-3, 6-12.

Nolan, Loyola, defeated Lescure, 2-6, 6-2, 6-3.

Cowan, A. U., defeated Joe Thaler, 9-7, 5-7, 7-5.

DOUBLES

Bill Thaler and Lacy defeated Miller and Rubin, 9-7, 6-4.

Doolittle and Lescure defeated Nolan and Roesser, 6-2, 6-4.

Schweitzer and Cowan tied Scrivener and Laroque, 6-3, 6-3, 4-4. (Match called because of darkness.)

Track

Appearance number two for Loyola's track squad found Randolph-Macon's Yellow Jackets drubbing the Greyhounds, 101½ to 30½, in a meet held at Day Field in Ashland, Virginia. Frank Goldsmith took first honors in the 100 yard dash, while Jack Kimmet was victorious in the mile run. In the two mile marathon, George Brown, the Hounds' stellar cinderkicker, romped across the finish line first to again grab the winning honors.

Golf

Father William Herlihy's golf team hung up its third consecutive win of the season by soundly defeating the linksmen from Mount Saint Mary's, 9-0, at the Western Maryland course.

The summary:

Hasbeck, Loyola, defeated Oristian, 1 up.

L. Saltiesiak, Loyola, defeated Kelly, 6 and 5.

Burgess, Loyola, defeated Callahan, 5 and 4.

B. Saltiesiak, Loyola, defeated Lalley, 3 and 2.

Davis, Loyola, defeated Hollis, 4 and 3.

Gisriel, Loyola, defeated Nevins, 3 and 2.

Hasbeck-L. Saltiesiak, Loyola, defeated Oristian-Kelly, 4 and 3.

B. Saltiesiak-Burgess, Loyola, defeated Callahan-Lalley, 4 and 3.

Davis-Gisriel, Loyola, defeated Hollis-Nevins, 5 and 4.

Lacrosse

Penn State's Nittany Lions had to come from behind to earn a 6-2 decision from Bish Baker's stick wielders at the winner's field, as Loyola inaugurated its 1947 lacrosse campaign.

In scoring its first win of the year, Penn State moved ahead in the third period after being deadlocked at 1-1 after the first two chapters. Paul Hughes scored Loyola's first goal, the first of the game, midway of the initial period.

Bob Wittlesberger's goal with only a few minutes remaining closed the scoring for Loyola.

Robert J. Cooke captured second place and a United States Saving Bond valued at one hundred dollars in the finals of the Hearst Newspaper Oratorical Contest. The finals took place in the Auditorium of the Enoch Pratt Library on the evening of April 18, 1947, where both college and high school winners were chosen.

Topic for the contest was "Patrick Henry." Representing Loyola, Cooke finished behind Louis Milo, University of Baltimore student, who also won the college finals in last year's contest.

Representatives of Boston, New York and Albany schools met the Baltimore winners at the Lyric Theatre on Wednesday, April 23, to decide the Eastern Zone winners.

Chess Team Defeats Navy

"Revenge is sweet" was the cry of the Loyola Chess team on its return from the Naval Academy last Sunday. By their 4-3 victory, they revenged last year's defeat and broke at the same time a three game losing streak. Tom Comber, Bob Fusting, Bob Bordley and Francis McFarland were the winners for Loyola.

On Friday, April 25, the team dropped a close 3-2 match to Georgetown. The game, the second of the year for the two teams, was played here at Loyola.

At Fordham, on Sunday, April 20, the Chess team lost by the score of 4-2. Phil Lohrey and Jim Bradley were the winners for Loyola. Tom Comber, Bob Bordley, Francis McFarland and Ed Rowles, the others who made the trip, were defeated. The match began at 2:00 p.m. following a chicken dinner at which the Loyola team were guests.

Immediately after this match, the team left for Rutgers. Their opponents, fresh from recent wins over Princeton, West Point and Fordham, won by a 3½-1½ score. In this match, Rowles was victorious and Bob Bordley played to a draw.

On April 14, the team defeated City College 5-2. Highlighting this match was Tom Comber's defeat of Robert Prem. It was Prem's third defeat in four years of outside competition as City's number one man.

What Kind Do You Smoke? Investigator Checks Up!

One of the members of the business staff, about to invest in a pack of cigarettes and befuddled by the all-inclusive claims of tobacco manufacturers, decided to conduct an investigation to be sure the funds were spent as wisely as possible. So startling were the results of his informal research that the data are reprinted here.

Father Bunn Opens Daily May Devotions

The Very Rev. Edward B. Bunn, S. J., President of Loyola College, delivered the sermon yesterday at the first of the daily devotions scheduled to take place during the month of May in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Each school day during May, the student body traditionally gathers together in front of the Statue of the Blessed Virgin on the lawn and students deliver the sermons and lead the student body in the recitation of the Litany. The names of the speakers are posted on the bulletin board outside the Chapel.

Singing of hymns will open and close the devotions scheduled to begin at 12:30 daily.

"Hi Ya Baldy" Is Club Motto

Seven out of fourteen prospective members for a new and definitely original organization labeled alternately "The Brotherhood of the Wide Part," "The Mount Baldy Club," "The Secret Society of the Elongated Forehead" and "The Observatory Dome Boys," assembled for an initial meeting on Thursday, April 17, when Edward Owen was elected President.

Founded by Ray Clemmens in an effort to put a stop to all un-humorous remarks about prematurely bald young men, the group have chosen Father Hauber as moderator and plan a series of seminars on the cause of baldness, probable cures, the effect of hairless states on physical bearings, and other such items of interest to men growing "just a little thin here and there."

Primary requirement of the organization is 13 square inches of forehead. Of course, if, by some unfortunate mishap, your forehead isn't square, then you may as well forget it. Which, incidentally, is a good idea. So we will.
